Re: United States Court Security Officers, et al., v. United States Marshals Service,
22 Civ. 1380 (VM)

Dear Judge Marrero:

This Office represents defendant United States Marshals Service (the “Government”), in the above-referenced Administrative Procedure Act (“APA”) and Freedom of Information Act case commenced by plaintiffs. We write respectfully to request that the Court amend the so-ordered briefing schedule on the Government’s motion to dismiss plaintiffs’ APA claim [ECF No. 16], to correct an inadvertent error in the initially proposed deadline for the Government’s opening brief. Because the Government’s proposed date of October 10, 2022 for filing its opening brief is a federal holiday, the Government respectfully requests that the October 10, 2022 deadline be amended to October 11, 2022. This change does not affect the remaining briefing deadlines that have been so-ordered by the Court. Plaintiffs consent to this request. The schedule as modified is set forth below:

Filing	Deadline
Government’s Opening Brief	October 11, 2022
Plaintiffs’ Opposition Brief	November 7, 2022
Government’s Reply Brief	November 21, 2022

We thank the Court for its consideration of this request.

Respectfully,

DAMIAN WILLIAMS
United States Attorney

The Court adopts the parties' revised, proposed schedule.

SO ORDERED.
